

WiSe 2021/22

Global Sociology & Politics Colloquium

Wednesday, 4.15pm-5.30pm

27 Oct. Yih-Jye Hwang (Leiden University)

Victimized State and Visionary Leader? Questioning China's Approach to Human Security in Africa

10 Nov. Kai Koddenbrock (University of Bayreuth)

A Postcolonial International Political Economy of Finance

24 Nov. Joschka Philips (University of Bayreuth)

Disruptive Events and the Circulation of Information: the Case of the Guinean Coup d'État

8 Dec. Sara Dezalay (University of Cardiff)

Africa's Lawyers: From Imperial Agents to Legal Brokers in Global Markets

22 Dec. Matthew Sabbi (University of Bayreuth)

Homegrown Internationalism? Frontiers to Indigenization of Development Cooperation Goals (in Ghana and Rwanda)

19 Jan. Bronwyn Dworzanowski-Venter (University of Johannesburg)

Postcolonial Thought and Social Theory. Reading Julian Go

2 Feb. Manuela Boatca (Universität Freiburg)

Theorizing Otherwise: Globality, Transnationality, Postcoloniality

Organised by Prof. Dr. Jana Hönke & Prof. Dr. Alexander Stroh-Steckelberg

In-person: Room RW I, S 58

Online: Zoom Meeting-ID: 648 5700 0013, Code: 413545

For additional information please visit: <https://www.soziologie.uni-bayreuth.de/de/Kolloquium/>